1. Purpose

This Policy provides a framework to ensure that admission of students into UTS programs of study is supported by fair, transparent, consistent and timely procedures that are in line with the University’s missions and functions.
2. Scope

This Policy applies to admissions, readmissions and transfers for all UTS programs, with the exception of short courses.

3. Definitions

Unless specified, the definitions used in this Policy follow those stated in Schedule 1, Student Rules. These are in addition to those definitions outlined in Schedule 1.

Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) means a number (not a mark) that indicates a student’s position in relation to their Year 12 cohort, including students who did not complete Year 12. It is a rank that allows the comparison of students who have completed different combinations of HSC courses.

Articulation means an approved arrangement which recognises that:

(a) the completion of requirements in one course contributes to the satisfaction of course requirements of another course

(b) admission to the subsequent course may be dependent, and possibly guaranteed, upon satisfactory completion of the prior course at a specified level

(c) credit for study completed in one course which is to be recognised for the requirements of a subsequent course must be approved as part of an articulation arrangement with an external provider, or as part of the UTS course structure if only UTS courses are involved.

Articulation can be internal or external (see below).

Dual Program of Study means a program of study that leads to two awards for a student: one from UTS and one from another higher education provider. The two awards are provided in tandem through a formally approved cross-credited arrangement.

Educational Access Scheme (EAS) means a scheme which allows approved applicants demonstrating disadvantage to enter UTS with a lower Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) score, or equivalent, than is normally required. This is run by UAC on behalf of UTS (and other universities).

Exchange student means a student from an overseas institution that has a Student Exchange Agreement with UTS. This agreement allows reciprocal arrangements for an agreed number of students of both institutions to study at the hosting institution for a specified period of time (usually one or two semesters) in order to undertake specified subject(s) in accordance with the terms of the Agreement. The student is required to pay tuition fees at their home institution only.

External articulation is the form of articulation (see above) that allows UTS to approve and recognise a program of study taught by an external provider as being equivalent to a component part of a UTS program of study. These arrangements usually, but not always, involve exemptions for specific subjects or block credit transfer, and sometimes, but not always, involve guaranteed admission to a specific UTS award course provided the student has achieved specified grades or marks. In some cases, UTS will cooperatively deliver the initial program of study with the external provider.

Foundation studies course means a pre-university preparatory course offered by a recognised provider which aims to equip students with the skills and capabilities for entry into higher education programs. Foundation studies courses provide an academic entry pathway to first year undergraduate study or its equivalent. Foundation studies may be available to both local and international students.

inpUTS Educational Access Scheme is the UTS educational access scheme available to students who have experienced long-term disadvantage impacting on their results in school, vocational or university education.

Internal articulation is the form of articulation (see above) which allows UTS to approve and recognise a suite of interlinked UTS courses, usually in the series of Graduate Certificate, Graduate Diploma, Master. The approved structure may provide for an ‘early exit’ option upon completion of the course requirements for a lower level award and also for admission to a higher level course in the suite with full credit for study completed satisfactorily as part of the lower level course.

Local student means a student who is an Australian citizen (including Australian citizens with dual citizenship), or a student who is a New Zealand citizen or a student who has Permanent Resident Status.

Minor means a person under the age of 18.

Offer means the formal invitation made to a prospective student to commence an award course or a program of study at UTS.

Offshore student means a student who is enrolled in a UTS course of study delivered at a location outside Australia and not through distance learning mode.

Program of study (program) means a collection of academic subjects which may or may not lead to the award of a degree, diploma or certificate.

Qualification(s) includes degrees, diplomas, certificates, professional titles and professional standing that an individual acquires through recognised study or experience. It also includes the outcomes of an assessment and validation process obtained when a competent body determines that an individual has achieved relevant learning outcomes to given standards and/or processes the necessary competence in a specific area.

Schools Recommendation Scheme means the scheme available to students endorsed by their school and provides an ATAR concession beyond the ten points available through the inpUTS Educational Access Scheme.

Selection Criteria means specific requirements, including English language proficiency requirements, within the approved admission standards of each program, designed to establish eligibility and to enable ranking of applicants (where necessary) for admission into the program of study.

Special Admissions Scheme means the inpUTS, Schools Recommendation and Elite Athletes and Performers access schemes that allow approved applicants including non-recent school leavers, refugees, elite athletes/performers and others to enter a UTS course with a lower entry score than is normally required.

Universities Admissions Centre (UAC) means the organisation established by NSW and ACT universities to coordinate admissions to their award courses.
4. Policy principles

4.1 Admission requirements will focus on merit and reflect the potential for academic success.

4.2 UTS encourages lifelong learning, including formal, informal and non-formal learning, and provides applicants for admission to the University’s programs with the opportunity to have relevant, prior learning considered in their application.

4.4 Admission requirements for undergraduate and postgraduate coursework courses will be reviewed and approved annually by Academic Board via faculty boards and the Courses Accreditation Committee.

4.5 Admissions requirements for graduate research courses will be reviewed and approved as necessary by Academic Board via Faculty Boards and the Graduate Research School Board.

4.6 Applicants will be admitted by fair, timely, and transparent procedures, on the basis of clearly defined, consistent and equitable requirements.

4.7 Staff involved in the admission process must not divulge to any unauthorised person any information related to an individual student’s application or admission in line with the University’s Privacy Policy.

Details of the approval processes for admissions and selection criteria are outlined in the Admissions Procedures and section 6 of this Policy (Roles and responsibilities).

5.1.1 English language requirements

English language requirements for admission to programs should be set in accordance with the English Language Policy.

Applicants to a course must satisfy the English language proficiency requirements applicable for admission to that course. These English language proficiency requirements are approved by Academic Board as part of the new course approval process. English language proficiency requirements for the University’s programs are outlined in the Register of English Language Proficiency Requirements (PDF, Staff Connect) (Register B of the Register of Admissions Standards on Staff Connect).

The approval authorities for changes to English language requirements (along with other admission selection criteria) are outlined in the Admissions Procedures and section 6 of this Policy (Roles and responsibilities).

5.1.2 Undergraduate Bachelor degree

5.1.10 Non-award study
Applicants may seek admission to non-award study to undertake an individual subject or a program of subjects out of interest or in order to obtain professional registration or to improve their vocational position. Applicants must be able to provide evidence of potential academic success and demonstrate reasons for wishing to undertake a non-award study.

The University reserves the right to vary the list of subjects available for non-award study. Such variation(s) must be made publicly available.

5.1.10.1 Cross-institutional study
Local applicants from other tertiary education institutions in Australia may wish to undertake a UTS subject or subjects concurrently as part of their award course. UTS require applicants to provide documentary evidence that their own institution has approved the concurrent enrolment and that the applicant meets the UTS requisites for the subject(s) (Rule 7.3).

Cross-institutional programs of study must not exceed 48 credit points, and the maximum load for a semester is 26 credit points.

A student who fails a subject for a third time will not be permitted to re-enrol in that subject as a cross-institutional student.

Admissions for cross-institutional students are coordinated by the Student Administration Unit (SAU) and are subject to the approval of the Responsible Academic Officer in the relevant faculty and the availability of class places.

5.1.10.2 Study Abroad and Exchange students
UTS admits international students for one or two semester programs of study that may be counted towards a degree at their home university. Study Abroad and Exchange programs are managed by UTS International (UTS:I).

International applicants who have completed the equivalent of an Australian high school qualification but who have not completed their first year of tertiary education, are eligible to apply for admission to the UTS Study Abroad or Exchange program at the undergraduate level. University admission requirements for the relevant undergraduate course apply.

International applicants who have completed one or more years of undergraduate study, with at least the equivalent of a credit average, are eligible to apply for admission to the UTS Study Abroad or Exchange program at undergraduate level.

Applicants who have completed the equivalent of an Australian Bachelor’s degree are eligible to apply for admission to Study Abroad at UTS for the Visiting Research Student Program. All admission requirements for the relevant graduate research course apply.

Study Abroad students must satisfy the admissions requirements for the relevant undergraduate or postgraduate course. English language requirements will be based on the University's minimum English language requirements for admissions.

Study Abroad students must enrol in a full-time load at UTS. The full-time study load is between 18 and 24 credit points per semester. Credit points apply to all subjects (except graduate research courses) and represent a measure of the student workload by subject.

On completion of the Study Abroad program, students are not eligible for any degree award but will receive an academic transcript for their studies at the University.

Study Abroad students applying to transfer and to enroll for a degree (or other) course must meet all admission requirements for the selected degree course.

5.2 Policy statements applying to all UTS programs of study
